

PREFERENCES FOR HEARINGS
Clair R. Cramer

My preferences for hearing are:

1. That the parties follow the hearing assignment order regarding the amount of evidence and that the evidence that is offered be relevant, material and not unduly repetitious and have probative value for the issues to be determined in the case, and
2. That the parties follow the applicable rules regarding timely exchange of evidence.